The Book of Business Lists is a compilation of select lists recently published in the Fairfield and Westchester County Business Journals. All of the data was collected from survey questionnaires, phone interviews, email responses, company websites, annual reports, proxy statements, LinkedIn accounts and/or government websites, including the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (fdic.gov) and the National Credit Union Administration (ncua.gov). Only these sources were used throughout to ensure the accuracy of the information published. Many of the lists were assembled using a combination of the sources cited above. If you would like to include your company in a future listing, or if you would like to update existing information about a company, please contact Bob Rozycki at bobr@westfairinc.com.
